Development of new REACT courses continues - we now offer 9 communications courses, with 4 more offering scheduled to be complete by the end of April. Members from 5 teams have completed 29 courses for a total of 76 training hours. Our quarterly exercise schedule is in place for 2018, with ALERTEX 2018-A, a tornado scenario, scheduled for 22-23 February. Subsequent exercises are schedule for May, August, and November. Our focus this year is on Training Type IV deployable Communications Teams, Base Station Teams, and Message Teams to provide a range of capabilities in major emergencies and disasters. Training requirements have been established for individual members of Type IV Teams, and our objective is to start credentialing individuals and Teams at the end of April. To improve message handling skills we now have an active weekly Traffic Net on Zello and are working to develop a core of operators experienced in traffic net operations. We have introduced a monthly qualifying run for formal messages that operates much as does the ARRL's code runs, and we have qualified operators at both 10 and 15 word per minute 100% good copy. Finally, we continue to support The REACTer with current information in a monthly training column.

FCC Itinerant Use (Item 7)
Communications Committee Chair Mr. Mahon reported:
Mr. Mahon spoke about the draft submitted for use of the WQUS415 Corporate Interoperability Channels by chartered Teams in good standing. The Memorandum of Understanding under the REACT International license two-way radio frequencies are intended by the FCC to be temporary means of communications with US Government stations “in connection with mutual activities.”

The DHS developed Post 911 interoperability channels to allow coordination of different jurisdictions, agencies, and disciplines to communicate with one another directly in the response phase of a large-scale incident. The interoperability plan also authorizes stations licensed under Part 90 to communicate with US Government stations “in connection with mutual activities” without further licensing considerations.

The Draft MOU highlights limitations of the FCC authorization as noted in Part 90 rules and regulations. Fixed base repeater operations will be limited to the recovery phase of a major incident with an anticipated operational period of 30 to 120 days, by the approval of the REACT International President and/or the Communications Coordinator. The agreement allows coordinated use of mobile repeater pairs and low power portable simplex frequencies in the VHF and UHF authorizations in either analog or digital modes. The agreement calls for the formation of a Communications Committee whose members are made up from teams with an active MOU. Mr. Mahon, is President of Southeastern Massachusetts REACT Team 6240 and a member of the Training & Development Committee.
